	Infantry Unit and Artillory Unit in Liberec	25X1
OPIC		nde einer nicht der Lette der Geschler, der zeiter eine Stelle Stelle Stelle Stelle Stelle Stelle Stelle Stelle
		25X1
	neige to July 1951	en virtue Challer II. Prescraft Lorinda Hom. der 1944 to de
ATE OF C	CONTENT prior to July 1951	and 1007
	25X1 DATE PREPARED 21 Dectemb
EFERENCE	ES_	- Andre Cleary (Art 1994) Self-Index (All 1997 POSC (And Estimated Aprillation (Angles
AGES	1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)	hri das vilkistys, svoje obne istaliteks svoje. Vakstadova dinna istalik aproducente, jen go to disconsissenska
EMARKS_	the state of the s	ATTENDED TO STATE OF THE STATE
	co har cing	JULATE
	25X1	6 kilikulusi et sii di jeden distiikusi. Yi Pilanitiin yliität enjitarradian seograpia olen e diros or s
	20/1	despectation of enhancemental are young descentional descentional residence and configuration of the second of
τ.	nfantry Barracks.	_
	. An infantry barracks laid out like a castle with battlene road to Ruprechtice, located about 2 km northeast of Liber 1951. Its northern sector included a garage. The installat by a unit of about 800 troops, who were red-hardered red e last two months. * The weapons of the troops included Sovi machine guns with drum magazines, Czoch-type submachine gu Gernan- and Czech-type carbines, Soviet-type light machine magazines, Soviet-type water-cooled heavy machine guns and 42 heavy machine guns.	paulets for the et-type sub- ns of one mocal, guns with drum
A 1	by a unit of about 800 troops, who were red-bordered red e last two months. * The weapons of the troops included Sovi machine guns with drum magazines, Czech-type submachine gu Gernan- and Czech-type carbines, Soviet-type light machine magazines, Soviet-type water-cooled beavy machine guns and	paulets for the et-type sub- ns of one mocal, guns with drum
A 2	by a unit of about 800 troops, who were red-bordered red e last two months. * The weapons of the troops included Sovi machine guns with drum magazines, Czech-type submachine gu German- and Czech-type carbines, Soviet-type light machine magazines, Soviet-type water-cooled heavy machine guns and 42 heavy machine guns.	paulets for the et-type sub- ns of one mocal, guns with drum German model r of hyperentice, al wide of each ace, and on L- was occupied by ainly equipped s. Field howitzers cbserved. The ion with six to pe carbines and t consisted of
-	by a unit of about 800 troops, who were red-bordered red explast two months. * The weapons of the troops included Sovi machine guns with drum magazines, Czech-type submachine guns German- and Czech-type carbines, Seviet-type light machine magazines, Soviet-type water-cooled hoavy machine guns and 12 heavy machine guns. Tillery Barracks An artillery barracks was located on the eastern perimeter included one U-shaped three-story building, the lengitudin of the three component buildings measuring 120 to 150 meters shaped garage, and was enclosed by a barbed wire fence. It a motorized artillery unit of about 1,000 men, which was must guns of about 75 mm mounting pear-shaped muszle brake of about 100 mm and a heavy gun of about 150 mm were also unit was frequently observed marching out of the installate cight guns. Small arms observed included pistole, Czech-type submachine guns. The motor vehicles of the universious Tatra trucks and Skoda Tudor cross-country sedans. Comment. A previous report stated that no red-border are worn in the Czech Army.	paulets for the et-type sub- ns of one mocal, guns with drum German model r of impresentice, al side of each re, and on L- was occupied by ainly equipped s. Field howitzers charted. The ion with six to pe carbines and t consisted of see red red epaulets the Arty Rest
2. 1 *	by a unit of about 800 troops, who were red-bordered red ends two months. * The weapons of the troops included Sovi machine guns with drum magazines, Czech-type submachine guns German- and Czech-type carbines, Seviet-type light machine magazines, Soviet-type water-cooled hoavy machine guns and higher machine guns. rtillery Barracks An artillery barracks was located on the eastern perisede included one U-chaped three-story building, the longitudin of the three component buildings measuring 120 to 150 motor shaped garage, and was enclosed by a barbed wire fence. It a motorized artillery unit of about 1,000 men, which was must guns of about 75 mm mounting pear-shaped muzzle brake of about 100 mm and a heavy gun of about 150 mm were also unit was frequently observed marching out of the installate cight guns. Small arms observed included pistole, Czech-type submachine guns. The motor vehicles of the unit various Tatra trucks and Skoda Tudor cross-country sedans. Comment. A previous report stated that no red-border are worn in the Czech Army. Comment. The 22d Inf Regt and one battalion of the lare known to be stationed at the Liberec post. In view of	paulets for the et-type sub- ns of one mocal, guns with drum German model r of impresentice, al side of each re, and on L- was occupied by ainly equipped s. Field howitzers charted. The ion with six to pe carbines and t consisted of see red red epaulets the Arty Rest
2. 1 *	by a unit of about 800 troops, who were red-bordered red ends two months. * The weapons of the troops included Sovi machine guns with drum magazines, Czech-type submachine guns German- and Czech-type carbines, Seviet-type light machine magazines, Soviet-type water-cooled hoavy machine guns and higher machine guns. rtillery Barracks An artillery barracks was located on the eastern perisede included one U-chaped three-story building, the longitudin of the three component buildings measuring 120 to 150 motor shaped garage, and was enclosed by a barbed wire fence. It a motorized artillery unit of about 1,000 men, which was must guns of about 75 mm mounting pear-shaped muzzle brake of about 100 mm and a heavy gun of about 150 mm were also unit was frequently observed marching out of the installate cight guns. Small arms observed included pistole, Czech-type submachine guns. The motor vehicles of the unit various Tatra trucks and Skoda Tudor cross-country sedans. Comment. A previous report stated that no red-border are worn in the Czech Army. Comment. The 22d Inf Regt and one battalion of the lare known to be stationed at the Liberec post. In view of	paulets for the et-type sub- ns of one mocal, guns with drum German model r of impresentice, al side of each re, and on L- was occupied by ainly equipped s. Field howitzers charted. The ion with six to pe carbines and t consisted of see red red epaulets the Arty Rest
2. 1 *	by a unit of about 800 troops, who were red-bordered red ends two months. * The weapons of the troops included Sovi machine guns with drum magazines, Czech-type submachine guns German- and Czech-type carbines, Seviet-type light machine magazines, Soviet-type water-cooled hoavy machine guns and higher machine guns. rtillery Barracks An artillery barracks was located on the eastern perisede included one U-chaped three-story building, the longitudin of the three component buildings measuring 120 to 150 motor shaped garage, and was enclosed by a barbed wire fence. It a motorized artillery unit of about 1,000 men, which was must guns of about 75 mm mounting pear-shaped muzzle brake of about 100 mm and a heavy gun of about 150 mm were also unit was frequently observed marching out of the installate cight guns. Small arms observed included pistole, Czech-type submachine guns. The motor vehicles of the unit various Tatra trucks and Skoda Tudor cross-country sedans. Comment. A previous report stated that no red-border are worn in the Czech Army. Comment. The 22d Inf Regt and one battalion of the lare known to be stationed at the Liberec post. In view of	paulets for the et-type sub- ns of one mocal, guns with drum German model r of impresentice, al side of each re, and on L- was occupied by ainly equipped s. Field howitzers charted. The ion with six to pe carbines and t consisted of see red red epaulets the Arty Rest
2. 1 *	by a unit of about 800 troops, the were red-erdered red clast two menths. * The weapons of the troops included Sovi machine guns with drum magazines, Czech-type submachine guns and Czech-type carbines, Seviet-type light machine magazines, Soviet-type water-cooled heavy machine guns and highery barracks was located on the eastern periseter included one U-shaped three-story building, the lengitudin of the three component buildings measuring 120 to 150 meters haped garage, and was enclosed by a barbed wire fence. It a notorized artillery unit of about 1,000 men, which was meth guns of about 75 mm mounting pear-shaped muzzle brakes of about 100 mm and a heavy gun of about 150 mm were also unit was frequently observed marching out of the installating that guns. Small arms observed included pistols, Czech-type submachine guns. The motor vehicles of the univarious Tatra trucks and Skoda Tudor cross-country sedans. Comment. A previous report stated that no red-borded are worn in the Czech Army.	paulets for the et-type sub- ns of one mocal, guns with drum German model r of impresentice, al side of each re, and on L- was occupied by ainly equipped s. Field howitzers charted. The ion with six to pe carbines and t consisted of see red red epaulets the Arty Rest
1  1 	by a unit of about 800 troops, the were red-bardered red clast two menths. * The weapons of the troops included Sovi machine guns with drum magazines, Czech-type submachine guns German- and Czech-type carbines, Soviet-type light machine magazines, Soviet-type water-cooled heavy machine guns and his heavy machine guns. Tillery Barracks An artillery barracks was located on the mastern perisode included one U-shaped three-story building, the longitudin of the three compount buildings measuring 120 to 150 mote shaped garage, and was enclosed by a barbed wire fence. It a motorized artillery unit of about 1,000 men, which was must guns of about 75 mm mounting pear-shaped muzzle brake of about 100 mm and a heavy gun of about 150 mm were also unit was frequently observed marching out of the installating that guns. Small arms observed included pistols, Czech-typ Soviet-type submachine guns. The motor vehicles of the unit various Tatra trucks and Skoda Tudor cross-country sedans. Comment. A previous report stated that no red-border are worn in the Czech Army. Comment. The 22d Inf Regt and one battalion of the are known to be stationed at the Liberce post. In view of the two units are believed to be still located there.	paulets for the et-type sub- ns of one mocal, guns with drum German model r of impresentice, al side of each re, and on L- was occupied by ainly equipped s. Field howitzers charted. The ion with six to pe carbines and t consisted of see red red epaulets the Arty Rest
2 · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	by a unit of about 800 troops, the were red-ordered red elast two menths. * The weapons of the troops included Sovi machine guns with drum magazines, Czech-type submachine guns Gernan- and Czech-type carbines, Soviet-type light machine magazines, Soviet-type water-cooled heavy machine guns and his heavy machine guns. Tillery Barracks An artillery barracks was located on the eastern periode included one U-chaped three-story building, the lengitudin of the three component buildings measuring 120 to 150 moter shaped garage, and was enclosed by a barbed wire fence. It a notorized artillery unit of about 1,000 men, which was must guns of about 150 ms were also unit was frequently observed marching out of the installation of about 100 rm and a heavy gun of about 150 ms were also unit was frequently observed marching out of the installation cight guns. Small arms observed included pistole, Czech-typ Soviet-type submachine guns. The motor vehicles of the unit various Tatra trucks and Skoda Tudor cross-country sedans. Comment. A previous report stated that no red-berder are worn in the Czech Army. Comment. The 22d Inf Regt and one battalion of the lare known to be stationed at the Liberce post. In view of the two units are believed to be still located there.	paulets for the et-type sub- ns of one mocal, guns with drum German model r of impresentice, al side of each re, and on L- was occupied by ainly equipped s. Field howitzers charted. The ion with six to pe carbines and t consisted of see red red epaulets the Arty Rest
2 · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	by a unit of about 800 troops, the were red-ordered red elast two menths. * The weapons of the troops included Sovi machine guns with drum magazines, Czech-type submachine guns Gernan- and Czech-type carbines, Soviet-type light machine magazines, Soviet-type water-cooled heavy machine guns and his heavy machine guns. Tillery Barracks An artillery barracks was located on the eastern periode included one U-chaped three-story building, the lengitudin of the three component buildings measuring 120 to 150 moter shaped garage, and was enclosed by a barbed wire fence. It a notorized artillery unit of about 1,000 men, which was must guns of about 150 ms were also unit was frequently observed marching out of the installation of about 100 rm and a heavy gun of about 150 ms were also unit was frequently observed marching out of the installation cight guns. Small arms observed included pistole, Czech-typ Soviet-type submachine guns. The motor vehicles of the unit various Tatra trucks and Skoda Tudor cross-country sedans. Comment. A previous report stated that no red-berder are worn in the Czech Army. Comment. The 22d Inf Regt and one battalion of the lare known to be stationed at the Liberce post. In view of the two units are believed to be still located there.	paulets for the et-type sub- ns of one mocal, guns with drum German model r of hyperentice, al side of each as, and an L- was occupied by ainly equipped s. Field howitzers observed. The ion with six to pe carbines and t consisted of  red red epaulets hth Arty Ro, t the present report,